

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Position: Staff Attorney or Senior Staff Attorney,
Workers' Rights

Reports to: Workers' Rights Directing Attorney

Bargaining Unit: Yes

FLSA: Exempt

Type: Full Time

Position Summary and Responsibilities

Centro Legal's Workers' Rights Practice provides comprehensive legal services to low-wage workers facing wage theft, discrimination, retaliation, and other violations of workplace rights. Centro Legal also works closely with low-wage worker organizers and worker centers to offer legal services and legal rights education in support of collective efforts to improve working conditions. Centro Legal seeks a staff attorney or senior staff attorney to support Centro Legal's workers' rights practice in providing direct legal services to low-wage and immigrant workers.

Primary responsibilities will include:

- Directly representing low-wage workers in wage and hour, retaliation, and discrimination claims before state administrative agencies;
- Working together with Centro Legal's Litigation Director to advance affirmative litigation in state and federal court, including employment class actions, multi-plaintiff wage and hour cases, and discrimination lawsuits;
- Assisting workers at legal services clinics by providing advice and counsel and offering pro per support to help workers pursue remedies through state and federal agencies;
- Developing and strengthening relationships with worker centers and other community partners to provide legal education, outreach, and direct legal services;
- Supervising volunteer attorneys and law student interns in providing legal services;
- Supporting workers' rights policy advocacy and collaborating with key stakeholders on changes in law, policy and practice. This includes joining state and local efforts to improve legal protections and address systemic problems faced by low-wage workers (e.g. media events, amicus briefs, letters of support, in-person meetings with State legislators and local city councilmembers).

Qualifications

First and foremost, the applicant must profoundly share Centro Legal's mission and vision of social justice. Below are additional qualifications:

- JD, admitted and in good standing with the California Bar or awaiting bar results;

- Experience with employment law and labor laws, Berman hearings, plaintiff-side employment litigation (incl. discovery and depositions), mediation (incl. negotiating settlement agreements), or other similar relevant experience preferred;
- Fluency in Spanish required;
- Strong leadership, organizational, and self-management skills;
- Excellent writing, research, analytical, and verbal communication skills;
- Familiarity working with clients in crisis or who are trauma survivors;
- Ability to work cooperatively on projects with lawyers, other staff members, and diverse community organizations;
- Commitment to workers' rights, public interest law, and community and movement lawyering principles;
- Commitment to diversity within the office and a personal approach that values all individuals and respects differences regarding race, ethnicity, age, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, religion, ability, socio-economic circumstance, immigration status, and record of arrest or conviction.

Compensation and Benefits:

Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. Candidates with substantial relevant experience will be considered for the Senior Staff Attorney position. We provide a generous benefits package, including life insurance, LTD, leave policies, vacation, and December holiday office closure at full pay.

To Apply

Applicants are encouraged to apply ASAP. We will be reviewing applications on a rolling basis, and will remove this job posting when the position is filled.
